STAT

SUBJECT: Soviet Realities Institute

1. Per your suggestion, I talked to on the phone, gave him a quick brief on the Institute and solicited his help and participation. He seemed very supportive, and we will get together for lunch when he gets back from the Far East.

2. Another Subject: I think it would be very valuable to the organization to get our Office Directors together once a year or so at to discuss our business--the problems, the opportunities and where we are headed. The key is your participation--it would give you the opportunity to point the way and the Office Directors the opportunity to get the message directly and to feedback their ideas, etc. If you think this is worth pursuing, I will pursue.
